Becoming Attentive Travelers

Jesus, on the road to Jerusalem, passes through the town of Jericho. His intention was to move right through, yet when he catches sight of Zacchaeus, he stops and changes plans. Jesus was on the move, yet not so obsessed with plans and objectives that he didn't notice the needy soul of Zacchaeus peering down upon him from a sycamore tree.

Part of being an apostle of Christ is having a heart that's always attuned to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. We can't be so consumed with our good fortunes that we miss opportunities to offer Christ's salvation to those around us.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner and a publican who, as we know, were the hated tax collectors and collaborators of the Romans. Rather than a person to visit he was, for the Jews, someone to be avoided. Not for Jesus! Our Lord came to seek and save the lost. And Zacchaeus wanted to be found. He was so driven to see Jesus, he made himself look ridiculous by climbing a tree, admitting to his short stature and curiosity.

How many souls along our path are showing their unquenchable thirst to discover Jesus and, even more, to be discovered by him. While amassing worldly riches, they realize that their deep hunger can only be satisfied by something else. Only spiritual things can satiate the Spirit. Let's be willing to go off-road and facilitate these encounters with Jesus—of course, after we ourselves have been encountered by him.

For Reflection

What am I doing to find or to be found by Jesus Christ in my daily life?

What am I doing each day to help others find or be found by Jesus Christ?

[Jesus said to Zacchaeus,] "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Luke 19:10

We, the blended Catholic community of St. Ignatius Loyola, draw strength from Word and Sacrament, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist. Modeling Christ's work, we embrace our commitment to God's call. We remain faithful to the shared acts of prayer, study and service.

Together we extend Christ's hospitality to others and light the path of peace for generations to come.

"Knowing God is more important than knowing about God." - Karl Rahner, S.J.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

“Come down.”

What if Jesus called out to you in your lofty (or humble) position? Would your response be as generous as Zacchaeus in today's Gospel? This man, while scorned by his neighbors, pledges half of his possessions to the poor and guarantees his honesty in carrying out his tax collecting duties. As well he promises a fourfold repayment should there be any question. To be pulled from anonymity and presented with Jesus' complex confidence would be an astonishing experience. Can we adjust our lives to live up to such a belief in us?

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish will be celebrating a Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 4th at 7:00 PM. All those who have died from September 30, 2018 through September 30, 2019 will be remembered in a special way at this Mass. All parishioners are invited to attend this special liturgy to remember all of our faithful departed. A light reception will follow in Conlan Hall.

SAINT HEDWIG - NOVEMBER SAINT OF THE MONTH

Saint Hedwig was born into a noble family in 1174. At twelve, she married Henry who was also from a noble family and together they had seven children. Henry was an active ruler who expanded his lands in what is now Poland and Hedwig played an active role in his reign by serving as a wise counselor and promoting peace. She was renowned for her kindness and good works for the poor and she and her husband donated land and money to establish monasteries in their realm. At one time Henry was captured by a rival and Hedwig traveled to his prison to negotiate his release by demonstrating her wisdom and kindness. After the birth of their seventh child, Hedwig and Henry both took vows of chastity and spent their time in prayer and good works including building hospitals and educational facilities for the poor. Following Henry's death Hedwig joined the Cistercian convent which she had established.

Hedwig lived to be sixty-nine, outliving all of her children but one. She was canonized only twenty-four years after her death. Sadly, her children continually battled each other, two of whom actually went to war over land inherited from their father.

Saint Hedwig's feet were planted in the stuff of life, being a loving wife and devoted mother. Even though she was married to a rich and powerful man, instead of leading a pampered frivolous existence, she used her privileged position to work for poor families and spread Catholic institutions. In a time when women counted for little, she became significant through acts of goodness and kindness. She did not merely give money but even did the dangerous menial work of caring for sick lepers.

You will find her image behind the altar directly under the cross on the wall. Her feast day is celebrated on October 16th.

Beginning October 29th, The Al Beech West Side Food Pantry has changed its method of food distributing. Customers no longer need to call to register the day before, instead you can just show up at the Pantry any Tuesday or Friday between 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM. You will be able to choose the food you want and pack your own bags. This will stop you from getting food you don't like or want as was sometimes the case with our prepacked orders. There will be 8 to 10 staple items to pick from each time plus additional items. All that is required is that you reside on the West Side from Exeter to Plymouth including any towns in between. There are no other guidelines. Each time you come for food, you must have some form of ID such as a license or utility bill with your current address. One of our volunteers will sign you in and guide you through the new process. Remember that you do not have to call ahead. Just show up during those two hours any Tuesday or Friday. Note; Due to Election Day, Tuesday, November 5th, food will be distributed on Wednesday, November 6th instead. Thank you!

CONGRATULATIONS

Through the Sacrament of Baptism we joyfully welcome into our Christian community the following baby: Jessaley Genevieve Neuer. Many prayers to her as she begins her new life in Christ Jesus.
